

Entertainment & Philanthropic Public Relations

For Immediate Release

---

May 6, 2009

North Hollywood Store Front Gives Away Free Miracle Water as Public Service Against Swine Flu Epidemic

Harmonious Water's Miracle Water, Also Known as Kangen is Insurance to Frightened Locals During Swine Flu Scare, Officials Say the Water Dissolves Germs on Contact

North Hollywood, CA (May 2009) Harmonious Water, a specialty water store in North Hollywood is offering free electrolyzed strong acidic Kangen Water to support public safety and awareness and to minimize the spread of swine flu among residents.

"Everyone is welcome. We have a miraculous product that should be in every ones hands, especially right now." Said store owner, Roberto Quezadas.

According to a University of Georgia researcher, electrolyzed strong acidic water can be 10 times more effective at killing harmful bacteria than traditional rinsing methods. Hospitals and medical centers throughout Japan use this water because of its amazing disinfectant properties. Major hotels and care institutions in the United States are catching on as well.

The Sheraton Delfina, a luxury hotel in Santa Monica, recently installed a system that produces this water. They use it to replace harsh solvents for disinfecting, saving them $3,500 monthly in expenses, while aggressively protecting their workers against harmful chemicals and their customers from bacteria and germs.

Kagen Water has a variety of uses and is offered in stages of acid alkaline PH balance. The most acidic, while not for drinking, is proven to kill germs including Ecoli and Salmonella in 30 seconds, and dissolves herbicides, pesticides and insecticides from produce safely and immediately.

On the other end of the spectrum is Kagen's antioxidant alkalized drinking water that boast remarkable results, superseding the best antioxidants available and has inspired a dedicated group of water junkies. Harmonious water is giving away a 30 day supply of this water, as well. They're able to do this because the water speaks for itself.

Since their grand opening, Harmonious Water has experienced a number of happy and sorted testimonials. There is a rave about this product that is spreading and some dare to say it is saving the quality of lives and warding off sickness, while proving to be the best green solution to cleaning, disinfecting and also, hydrating and neutralizing acidic conditions in the body.