Yana Billé Emerges With Audacious Film “Waters” Expected to Esteem Her as a Master Mind of Deeply Touching and Revealing Contemporary Short Film

“Waters” World Premieres at the Pan African Film & Arts Festival
February 13 & 15, 2009

WHO: Foreign notable and Cameroonian born Writer, Director, Producer, Actress Yana Billé credited for writing the critically acclaimed Telesud TV Series Yama Afrika, and “Three Months” – a TV Movie by the same network.

WHAT: Billé unleashes “Waters” to World Premiere at the Pan African American Film Festival (PAFF) – What begins as a normal day turns into one woman’s ferocious attempt to cleanse herself of an emotional haunting stemming out of abuse from her past. Billé exquisitely deals with a topic once hushed, but widely prevalent among communities around the world, in a way never before, until now. With “Waters” an intimate and up close look of a women’s inner turmoil is artistically exploited. PAFF is America’s largest and most prestigious flagship black film and arts festival. PAAF expects a quarter of a million attendees.

WHERE: Pan African American Film Festival – The Culver Plaza Theaters 9919 Washington Boulevard, Los Angeles.

WHEN: “Waters” to show February 13, 1PM, and February 15, 10PM.
